Brief Program Overview

What is D'Oraita?

D'Oraita Teen Centers provide empowering, engaging, and informal educational spaces for teenagers in Israel's periphery. Many lack role models or connection to Judaism and Israel. We inspire, guide, and equip them to become responsible, contributing citizens of Israel.

Who are the target audiences?

- Teens from underprivileged communities in Israel's periphery
- Displaced and war-affected youth post-October 7th

Main Activities & Impact

- Personal Development: Teaching life skills through interactive spaces (snooker tables, kitchenettes, informal learning zones)
- Jewish Identity & Zionism: Strengthening connections through study, volunteering, and cultural activities
- Giving Back: Shifting teens from passive recipients to active contributors through community volunteering
- Global Jewish Engagement: Hosting 62 missions (1,344 participants) from North America for immersive experiences

Addressing Post-October 7 Realities

- Providing emotional, psychological, and physical support to affected youth
- Creating safe spaces for healing and resilience-building
- Turning youth into first responders and community leaders
- Fostering global solidarity through direct Jewish world connections
